New Traffic Laws for Maclay Avenue Laws Enforced January 1, 2008

At its November 19 meeting, the San Fernando City Council authorized an ordinance to impose new traffic laws for Maclay Avenue from Truman Street to Eighth Street. The ordinance now prohibits commercial vehicles over $\frac{3}{4}$ ton (except for local deliveries) and reduces the current 35 mph speed limit to:

15 mph between Truman Street and Fourth Street;

25 mph between Fourth Street and Glenoaks Boulevard; and

30 mph between Glenoaks Boulevard and Eighth Street.

New traffic regulation signs are in place, and police officers will issue warnings from December 22 to December 31. Officers will issue citations effective January 1.
