Everybunny's invited to the City of San Fernando's annual Easter Eggstravaganza on Saturday, April 11. The free family event takes place from noon to 2:30 p.m. at Las Palmas Park, 505 S. Huntington St.

An egg hunt will kick-off the festivities offering children up to age 13 an opportunity to win prizes and candy. Carnival games, arts and crafts, and refreshments will round out the afternoon.

The Easter Bunny will be on-hand for plenty of hugs and photos.

Trolley service to Las Palmas Park will be available from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., with an added pick-up location at San Fernando Recreation Park. Return service to the trolley stop locations will begin immediately after the event.
